

International Arbitration

Dispute Resolution Management and Support Driving Your Global Business Strategy

International arbitration provides a consistent, predictable framework for cross-border disputes, as well as the power to enforce awards throughout the world. For these reasons, arbitration has emerged as the preferred mechanism for resolving international disputes. We combine strategic thinking with advocacy skills, substantive experience and knowledge of international arbitration law to help you manage and resolve disputes effectively, always putting your business goals at the heart of dispute resolution strategy.

Comprehensive Support. On Your Terms.

Ancillary international dispute support (discovery; investigations; formal and informal settlement discussions)

Drafting and negotiating arbitration provisions for cross-border contracts

Reviewing options and evaluating arbitral organizations

Pursuing claims or responding to demands for arbitration

Conducting arbitration in front of sole arbitrators and arbitration panels

Organizing information and utilizing technology resources

Enforcing arbitration awards across countries

We eliminate uncertainty by helping you select the best arbitration options and create contracts that reflect your preferences — and when disputes emerge, we represent you throughout the arbitration process, including in awards enforcement.

List of major arbitration institutions with experience

American Arbitration Association (AAA)

London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA)

ICC's International Court of Arbitration

International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR)

Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC)

Key industry sectors

Financial services

Energy and natural resources

Technology

Telecommunications

Hospitality

Advertising

Trusted Advocacy Across All Commercial Disputes

Corporate, transactional and M&A-related disputes

Contractual claims against states, including investorstate arbitrations

Antitrust

Franchise and distribution matters

Trade secret and noncompete cases

Bilateral investment treaties (BITs)s

We leverage the resources of a global litigation team with experience in nearly every type of complex commercial dispute.

Our Global Reach

Our reach extends beyond our offices in the U.S., London and Shanghai. We are a founding member of Lex Mundi — and a member of its international arbitration team — and have been a member of the World Law Group for more than 30 years. Through our international footprint and our global networks of firms, we are positioned to help you manage and respond to disputes around the globe.

We have handled complex international arbitrations in the U.S., Europe, Africa, Asia and elsewhere around the globe.

The Faegre Drinker Difference

Strong command of U.S., Chinese and English law and the interplay between these systems

Dual-trained attorneys that actively practice in two legal systems and bring a comparative legal perspective to client issues

Collective proficiency in more than 25 languages

Decades of experience helping multinational clients manage the challenges and seize the opportunities of globalization

Our team has experience serving as mediators and arbitrators in complex disputes for major arbitral institutions, including the AAA, ICDR, LCIA and ICC