

Janis Koyanagi

Director, Business Development & Strategy, Toronto Stock Exchange and TSX Venture Exchange

Janis Koyanagi CA, CFA is the Director, Business Development & Strategy at Toronto Stock Exchange and TSX Venture Exchange. She is responsible for international business development activities and strategy for both exchanges. With over 10 years of experience at the TSX, she has provided advisory services to companies that are looking to go public and has worked with companies across all industry sectors from mining, diversified industrials to technology and biotech. She also has developed a specialization in product development in financial services, structured products, and exchange-traded funds.

Prior to her career at TSX, Ms. Koyanagi worked at the Bank of Montreal as a senior analyst in investor relations. Also, she worked at Price Waterhouse in audit, tax and corporate finance.

Ms Koyanagi graduated from the University of Western Ontario and has subsequently obtained her Chartered Accountant and her Chartered Financial Analyst designations.