

Karen Boyer

Senior Vice President
U.S. Bank

Karen Boyer was a Special Asset Officer at US Bank for the past three years managing complex and syndicated workout credits, the majority of which have been agented. She has been active in the banking industry for the past 28 years, engaged in various credit roles and product areas across a wide range of industries. She has been in workout for the past 15 years, experiencing many cycles with an industry concentration in the food and agriculture space. She received her M.B.A. in Financial Economics from Pace University in New York City in 1989.